

Social and Personal.

JUST at this season the reign of the college girl is supreme, and right so, for she is being duly feted and entertained by her friends, who join with her in the enthusiasm of commencement week and the pleasure incident to these last days before she bids good-by to her alma mater.

On Tuesday afternoon Dr. and Mrs. Frank C. Woodward gave a beautiful reception to the senior class of the Woman's College in their home, 1500 West Avenue, the whole class being present to enjoy their hospitality.

A number of Mrs. Woodward's friends were invited to meet the girls and to assist her in entertaining. The lower floor was thrown into one, and decorated profusely in Killarney roses and evergreens, the guests being received in the front drawing-room by Dr. and Mrs. Woodward, Mrs. J. C. Metcalf, Mrs. Carlton Jackson, Mrs. Blingham, Mrs. Leary, Mrs. Patton, Miss Kate Winston, Miss Annie Winston, Mrs. J. E. Tyler, Mrs. Alexander Brown, Mrs. Peter Winston and Mrs. Edward Gaines. Dr. and Mrs. James Nelson and Miss Forbes, of the college, were special guests of the afternoon, and among the class members who called were: Miss Flora Brown, Miss Euzella Hamrick, Miss Helen Hamrick, Miss Mary Cowell, Miss Edith Koonz, Miss Edith Vaughn, Miss Elise Flippin, Miss Lou Emma Lee Carter, Miss Sadie Bell, Miss McGowan, Miss Lillian Martin, Miss Jean Perkins, Miss Avis Northington, Miss Estelle Pitchette, Miss Ruth Taylor, Miss Sophie Galeski, Miss Inez Goddin, Miss Sadie Galeski, Miss Elizabeth Jeter, Miss Maudie Woodfin, Miss Edna Gayle, Miss Cornelia Scott, Miss Jessie Ham, Miss Eva Savage, Miss Ada Kuyk and Miss Mary Cone.

Miss Dabney will leave in June for Charlottesville, and is looking for a ward with much pleasure to her work there.

Mr. Coates has associated with him William J. Scott, of New York, as critic this year.

Attractive Dance.

Miss Carrie Lettich was a pleasant hostess on Wednesday evening, when she entertained a contingent of the Cotton Manufacturers' Association at a delightful informal hop at the Guarant.

A number of visiting girls and Miss Lettich's Richmond friends were among the guests who enjoyed her cordial hospitality.

For Memorial Day.

Those in charge of the arrangements for Memorial Day wish that all flowers be sent to Superintendent Hooper's office at Hollywood gate, and marked for the Junior Hollywood Memorial Association. They are especially desirous of receiving wreaths or hoops of wild flowers to be used in the decoration on Saturday, and hope that the children will respond to this request. The flowers may be sent late Friday afternoon or early on Saturday morning.

Maek-Balthis.

A wedding of interest to society people in Virginia, as well as army and navy circles, was that of Miss Madge French Balthis, daughter of Paymaster and Mrs. Harry H. Balthis, U. S. N., and Lieutenant Jacob Arthur Mack, of the Coast Artillery Corps, United States Army, which took place yesterday afternoon in the First Presbyterian Church of Portsmouth. Rev. Mr. Gilmour, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony, the wedding being a full military affair.

Miss Edith Balthis, sister of the bride, acted as maid of honor, and Florence Tait and Miss Dorothy Kin-kaid were bridesmaids. Lieutenant Wister, of the army, was the best man, and the ushers were Lieutenant Boothe, U. S. A., and Lieutenant Hunter Porter, U. S. A.

A number of entertainments have been given during the week in the bride's honor.

One of the prettiest affairs given in honor of Miss Balthis was an afternoon tea on Tuesday, when Miss Florence Tait, one of her bridesmaids, was hostess at her home, in Pembroke Avenue. The rooms were attractively decorated in pink and white sweetpeas, the same color scheme being carried out in the dining-room.

A tea-table shower was the feature of the occasion, and the prospective bride received many beautiful and useful gifts.

Miss Tait's guests were: Misses Madge and Edith Balthis, Dorothy Kin-kaid, Jean Cooke, Cherry Nottingham, Kitty Hardy, Mona Whittle, Anne Dornin, Barbara Staton, Marjorie Staton, Elizabeth Galt, Ethel Tait, Virginia Garrison and Mary Payne.
